observations respecting the haunts and connections of the Gang, and expresses apprehension that the Magistrate of Salem will not cordially cooperate with him.
To the—. Government considers it inexpedient to order the Prisoners Appoo and Cautaun to be returned to him by the Magistrate of Salem approves of the arrest of Sambia and his colleagues instructions as to the cordiality with which the Magistrates should cooperate and communicate together to ensure success in the discovery &c[a.] of the whole gang.	2[d.]	January	1827	2	2[d.] January	1827	7

To the—. Government considers it inexpedient to order the Prisoners Appoo and Cautaun to be returned to him by the Magistrate of Salem approves of the arrest of Sambia and his colleagues instructions as to the cordiality with which the Magistrates should cooperate and communicate together to ensure success in the discovery &c[a]. of the whole gang.	2[d].	January	1827	2	2[d]. January	1827	7
From the—. From evidence before him and other circumstances stated, considers the Police Aumeenah Sambiah to have connived at all the robberies of Appoo and Cautan and their Gang and to have shared in the spoils that the subsequent apprehension of one of them, by him, was a matter of necessity on his part and that his conduct afterwards was favourable to their escape. Expects to obtain satisfactory proof of this man's delinquency and information of the appropriation of the mass of property plundered from the neighbouring districts in the last few years as his inquiry will be facilitated by a visit to Palghat—has applied to the Principal Collector of Malabar for leave to go there.	30th.
